7-11 JULY 2009
IAREP/SABE CONGRESS

Halifax , Nova Scotia , Canada

International Association for Research in Economic Psychology (IAREP)

Society for the Advancement of Behavioral Economics (SABE)

Conference Theme: "Behavioural Economics, Economic Psychology: Theory and Policy"

Behavioral economics and economic psychology are influenced by research in economics, psychology, sociology, biology, neuroscience, institutions as well as being informed by traditional empirical studies and evidence derived from experimental economics and surveys, interviews, and simulations.

The IAREP-SABE Conference aims at providing voice to economists, psychologists and other academics to rigorously discuss and debate their latest research in a welcoming scholarly environment. We welcome paper submissions as well as session submissions, be they of a theoretical or empirical bent, on all relevant topics relating to behavioral economics and economic psychology.

We welcome your online submissions

The deadline for submissions is March 15, 2009. You will be notified by April 30, 2009, whether or not your submission has been accepted for presentation.

All sessions will take place at Saint Mary's University.

Some Conference Highlights:

George Akerlof 2001 Nobel Laureate in Economics (University of California, Berkeley) will present one of SABE's two Herbert Simon Memorial Lectures

Gerd Gigerenzer (Max Planck Institute for Human Development, Centre for Adaptive Behavior and Cognition, Berlin) will present the other of SABE's Herbert Simon Memorial Lecturers.

Ilana Ritov (The Hebrew University of Jerusalem) will present IAREP's Kahneman lecture.
