Visiting University Scholar Program

Deadlines: Applications are accepted throughout the year

Description:

The University of Western Ontario Visiting University Scholar Program is funded by the Office of the Vice-President (Research and International Relations) for a maximum contribution of $3,000 with additional matching funds provided by the host Faculty. Faculties are invited to nominate international candidates for short-medium term visits (lasting from a few days to one academic term) throughout the year. Preference will be given to distinguished international faculty candidates whose scholarship and distinction will contribute to and enliven the Western academic and research community.

Obligations of the Visiting University Scholar:

Winners of this award will be named “The University of Western Ontario Visiting University Scholar” and are required to undertake one or more of the following:

- Teach at selected classes offered by the University as a guest lecturer
- Speak at specially arranged seminars for students/faculty/community members
- Research collaboration with faculty members

Reminder: Accommodation for Visiting International Faculty – Summer 2009

The office of the Vice-President (Research and International Relations) has secured a block of rooms in Elgin Hall B&B for the period of May 8th to August 29th, 2009 for visiting international faculty. The available rooms are in suites of four rooms each, with all other facilities to be shared with other occupants. The cost of these rooms will be covered entirely and the rooms will be available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Application Process:

If you would like to reserve a room or rooms for your visiting international faculty during this period, contact Melissa Franco (mfranco5@uwo.ca) as soon as possible with the following details:

- Visitor's name and institution
- Country
- Dates of the visit
