

Sustainability in Developing Countries

Friday March 5th, 12pm – 2pm

McKellar Room in UCC

You are invited to attend a cross-disciplinary luncheon seminar for faculty and graduate students. The aim is to engage in multidisciplinary discussions about cutting-edge research in social and environmental sustainability. This is the fourth of a series of annual events to foster interdisciplinary cooperation.

Moderator: Dr. Pratima Bansal, Professor of Strategy and Director, Centre for Building Sustainable Value, Richard Ivey School of Business

12:00-12:10 Introduction: Colette Southam, Assistant Professor of Finance

Dr. Ted Hewitt, Vice-President (Research & International Relations).
International cooperation for urban development in Latin America

Danièle Bélanger, Canada Research Chair in Population, Gender and Development and Associate Professor of Sociology. International migration and co-development in Asia

12:10-1:10

David Cechetto. Professor at Schulich and Director of Rebuilding Health in Rwanda. Capacity building in health professional education

Terry Sicular. Professor of Economics. Income Distribution and Poverty in China

Srinivas Sridharan. Assistant Professor of Marketing. Business and Social Sustainability in Subsistence Marketplaces

1:10-1:30 Discussion and Q&A

1:30-2:00 Social Networking and Buffet Lunch at the Wave

There is limited space available; Please RSVP by Friday February 26th:

<http://www.ivey.uwo.ca/checkbox/Survey.aspx?surveyid=4041>

For additional information, please contact Katie Keri: kkeri@ivey.ca