

Royal Economic Society 2012 Annual Conference

Call for Young Talent Nominations

The Royal Economic Society is running a special session to showcase "young talent" at the RES 2012 conference. The session will showcase 3 speakers who will be either:

- PhD students who graduated from a UK economics department in 2009, 2010 or 2011

or

- Someone who was hired from their PhD by a UK department in 2009, 2010 or 2011.

If you would like to nominate someone to be considered for inclusion in this session please email the Programme Chair (res2012@econ.cam.ac.uk) with their name and current webpage by 15 September 2011 with the title 'Young Talent Nomination'. The final decision about who will be included in the session will be made by a committee comprising the current Programme Chair, the RES President, and the Editor of the Economic Journal.
