

36TH ANNUAL NBER SUMMER INSTITUTE CALL FOR PAPERS

The 36th Annual NBER Summer Institute will be held in Cambridge, Massachusetts from July 8 to July 26, 2013. Workshops will focus on a number of different topics including:

- Asset Pricing
- Corporate Finance
- Development Economics
- Development of the American Economy
- Economic Fluctuations and Growth
- Economics of Aging
- Economics of Children
- Economics of Crime
- Economics of Education
- Economics of Intellectual Property
- Economics of IT and Digitization
- Economics of National Security
- Economics of Real Estate and Local Public Finance
- Environmental and Energy Economics
- Health Care
- Health Economics
- Household Finance
- Industrial Organization
- International Finance
- International Trade and Investment
- Labor Economics
- Law and Economics
- Monetary Economics
- Personnel Economics
- Political Economy
- Productivity, Innovation, and Entrepreneurship
- Risk of Financial Institutions
- Social Security
- Urban Economics

The NBER provides continental breakfast and lunch each day, as well as limited support services. Authors whose papers are selected for presentation and who are invited to attend any of the workshops must pay for their own transportation and lodging.

Researchers who have completed their Ph.D.s, and who are interested in participating in the 2013 Summer Institute, should submit a copy of the paper they would like considered for the program, or a one page abstract if the paper is not complete, no later than February 15, 2013. Please note that the following workshops will only consider completed manuscripts (abstracts will not be considered): Asset Pricing, Corporate Finance, Economic Fluctuations and Growth, Energy and Environmental Economics, Law and Economics, Monetary Economics, and Political Economy. Questions can be sent to rshannon@nber.org.

Submissions can be uploaded to http://www.nber.org/~confer/2013/SI_2013/subs.html