

INSTITUT C.D. HOWE INSTITUTE

SCHOLARS' DINNER

John Helliwell

Senior Fellow of the Canadian Institute for Advanced Research (CIFAR); Co-Director of the CIFAR Program on Social Interactions, Identity and Well-Being; and Professor Emeritus of Economics, UBC Vancouver School of Economics

Building Better Lives: New Lessons from the Science of Happiness

John F. Helliwell is Senior Fellow of the Canadian Institute for Advanced Research and co-director of CIFAR's program on "Social Interactions, Identity and Well-Being". He is also Professor Emeritus of Economics at the University of British Columbia, a member of the National Statistics Council, and a Research Associate of the National Bureau of Economic Research. He was previously visiting special advisor at the Bank of Canada, visiting research fellow of Merton College in Oxford, of St. Catherine's College in Oxford, and Mackenzie King Visiting Professor of Canadian Studies at Harvard. He has published numerous books and articles, and is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada and an Officer of the Order of Canada. Join us at the inaugural Scholars' Dinner to hear from this leading academic on the interaction between research and actionable policy.
