

Noëlle Richardson:

“Equity and Fairness in the Canadian Campus Workplace”

April 10, 2013 | 4:30 - 5:30 pm

Conron Hall, University College, Western University

All members of the Western community are welcome to attend

As Chief Diversity Officer, Agencies, Noëlle Richardson's role is to help the Ministry of the Attorney General's Agencies, Boards and Commissions foster organizational cultures that support the goals of diversity and inclusion in the workplace. Appointed in August 2008, Ms. Richardson is the first Chief Diversity Officer appointed within any public sector organization in Canada.
