Course Objectives

The goal of this course is to introduce you to the microeconomic principles that will enable you to understand and interpret events in the world around you. We will analyze the choices of consumers and producers, and how these choices influence market outcomes. We will explore how these decisions are affected by market conditions and government policies and interventions.

Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to understand, explain, and analyze:
- the economic way of thinking using the concepts of scarcity, choosing at the margin, tradeoffs, and incentives.
- how prices and quantities are determined under perfect competition, imperfect competition and monopoly.
- how consumers and producers react to changes in prices.
- how consumers choose what to buy given budget limitations.
- a producer’s costs and its profit maximization decision under perfect competition, imperfect competition, and monopoly.
- the impact of government intervention in markets.

In order to get credit for your tutorial quizzes, you must ensure that you are attending the tutorial to which you are registered. Students who take quizzes in the wrong tutorial will receive a mark of zero for those quizzes. There are no make-ups for tutorial quizzes. Your tutorial mark will be calculated as the best 3 of 4 quizzes. Therefore, if you miss one or more quizzes, the first quiz will be automatically dropped. However, if you miss more than one quiz, you will have to have a valid excuse and supporting documentation for all missed quizzes in order to qualify for an accommodation. Documentation requirements are the same as those for missed midterms (see below).

The final exam will cover material from the entire term. You are required to bring the following to all exams:

- Current UWO student ID
- Pencil
- Non-programmable calculator (graphing calculators, programmable calculators, cell phone calculators, laptops, or other electronic devices are not allowed during exams)

Note: Computer-marked multiple-choice tests and/or exams may be subject to submission for similarity review by software that will check for unusual coincidences in answer patterns that may indicate cheating.

Policy Regarding Missed Exams

Make-ups will be granted with approved documentation only. If you have a conflict with one of the exam dates, it is your responsibility to discuss it with me at least one week before the regularly scheduled exam and provide documentation of the conflict. If approved, you must take a make-up exam before the regularly scheduled exam. If you miss an exam due to illness or other unforeseen reason, you must email me within 24 hours of the missed exam. You will be required to provide documentation of the reason for missing the exam to your Academic Counsellor on the first business day following the missed exam. If you miss an exam due to illness, I strongly urge you to visit a doctor the day of the missed exam to obtain documentation of you illness. If your Academic Counsellor and I agree that your reason for missing the exam is legitimate and supported by your documentation, you will be allowed to write a make-up exam. All make-up exams must be written by the Friday following the regularly scheduled exam. Additional important details on the Department’s policy regarding make-up exams are provided on the last page of the syllabus.

Make-up midterms may or may not be the same format as the regularly scheduled midterm.

Note: Any changes to this schedule will be provided in class. Some chapters will not be covered in their entirety. Please see the Reading List on the course website under Resources for details on the material covered in each chapter. The Reading List will be updated when we start a new chapter.
Students will be held responsible for all material presented in lectures, regardless of whether the material appears in the textbook.

Other Course and Classroom Policies

Attendance: Students are expected to attend lectures and tutorials regularly, and will be held responsible for all material and all announcements provided in class. Important announcements, such as times and locations of exams, will also be provided under the Announcements section of the course website (OWL).

Participation: I encourage you to participate and ask questions in class. Class discussion is a very useful component of learning, keeps class lively and interesting for all of us, and helps me identify topics that I should go over in more detail (at that time or as we prepare for exams).

Laptops: You may use a laptop in class to take notes until the first time you are found to be doing something other than taking notes on it.

Cell Phones: Please turn off your cell phones and other communication devices before entering the classroom.
Emails: According to FIPPA, I am not allowed to respond to non-UWO email addresses. So please use your UWO email address in all communications. Also, please enter the course number in the subject heading of your email. I will try to respond to all emails within 48 hours, not counting the weekend. I will NOT respond to emails such as the following:

1) Any question that is on this syllabus or elsewhere on the course website: such as exam dates, exam times, course material etc. If you have not received a reply to your question, check the syllabus and the course website.

2) The makeup policy is clearly stated on the syllabus, refer to it if needed.

3) Requests for extra assignments, reweighting of exams, assignments etc. as these are prohibited under Senate regulations.

4) Requests for my lecture notes. I do not provide my lecture notes to students, other than the material which is on the course website.
Please Note
Department Policies for 2014 – 2015

Remember that the University expects all students to take responsibility for their own academic Programs. Also remember to check your registration to make sure you are enrolled in the correct courses.

1. Guidelines and policies for the Faculty of Social Science and the Department of Economics are posted online in the current Western Academic Calendar at http://westerncalendar.uwo.ca.

3. Cheating as an academic offence: Students are responsible for understanding what it means to “cheat”. The Department of Economics treats cheating incidents very seriously and will investigate any suspect behavior. Students found guilty will incur penalties that could include a failing grade or being barred from future registration in other economics courses or programs. The University may impose further penalties such as a notation on your official academic transcript, suspension or expulsion.

4. Plagiarism: Students must write their essays and assignments in their own words. Whenever students take an idea or a passage from another author, they must acknowledge it by using quotation marks where appropriate and referencing with footnotes or citations. Plagiarism is a major academic offence (see Scholastic Offence Policy in the current UWO Academic Calendar at http://westerncalendar.uwo.ca/2014/pg113.html.

The University of Western Ontario uses software to check for plagiarism and students may be required to submit their written work in electronic form. Those found guilty will have penalties imposed as noted in point 3.

5. It is Department of Economics policy that NO assignments be dated, stamped or accepted by staff. Students are responsible for submitting assignments in class or to the instructor during office hours.

6. When appealing a mark, students should refer to the University’s Procedures in the current UWO Academic Calendar (http://westerncalendar.uwo.ca/2014/pg112.html). Please note the relevant deadlines.

The Department will not consider any appeal unless an attempt has been made to settle the matter first with your instructor. If after this discussion you remain dissatisfied with a grade or other decision, you may proceed with a written appeal (e-mails are not acceptable) to the Undergraduate Director in Economics, stating the reasons for your appeal. A useful form and checklist is provided at (http://economics.uwo.ca/undergraduate/program_counselling/responsibilities_policies.html#appeals).
7. Systematic adjustments of a class grade distribution (either up or down) can occur in Economics courses. The fact that grades have been adjusted is not grounds for an appeal.

8. Note the following add and drop deadlines:

Last day to add a full course or First term half course:
Friday, September 12th, 2014

Last day to drop second term half course without academic penalty:
Wednesday, November 5th, 2014

9. Faculty of Social Science policy states that oversleeping or misreading an exam schedule is not an excuse for a make-up. This rule applies to all mid-term tests and final exams in the Department of Economics.

Policy Regarding Makeup Tests and Final Examinations

Academic Accommodation will not be granted automatically on request. You must demonstrate by documentation that there are compelling medical or compassionate grounds before academic accommodation will be considered.

If you decide to write a test or an examination, you must be prepared to accept the mark you earn. Rewriting tests or examinations, or having the value of the test or examination reweighted on a retroactive basis, is not permitted. Book airline flights after you know the dates of your final examinations. Airline flights must not conflict with test or final exams.

If you are requesting a makeup test for a midterm or a final examination, unless medically incapable, notify your instructor by email or phone, preferably prior to the scheduled date of the test, but definitely within 24 hours of the date of the test or exam. Failure to follow this procedure may result in denial of a request for academic accommodation or result in a grade of zero. Set up an appointment as soon as possible to meet personally with your instructor. If the instructor is not available, you may send an email message, copying the Undergraduate Coordinator at econugrd@uwo.ca (Social Science Room 4075). Notifying your instructor of a missed test or exam does not automatically entitle you to a makeup test.

Students who seek a makeup test or examination must provide medical or other relevant verification that their absence from a regularly scheduled test or examination is beyond their control. Documentation must support your reasons. Medical documentation should be given to the Academic Counselling Office of your home Faculty as soon as possible (preferably within 24 hours of the test) if you know you may not be able to write your final examination on the scheduled day and time. Failure to follow this procedure, or to provide supporting documentation, may result in denial of a request for academic accommodation or result in a grade of zero. If your documentation is not acceptable, you will be given a zero for the missed test.

For personal illness, if you consult Student Health Services regarding your illness or personal problem, you should request a Student Medical Certificate from the physician. If you were seen by an off-campus doctor, obtain a certificate from his/her office at the time of your visit. The off-campus medical certificate form must be used and can be found at: http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/medicalform.pdf. Notes stating "For Medical Reasons" are not considered sufficient.

For any other circumstances, if you are not sure what documentation to provide, ask your Academic Counselor. If your documentation is judged sufficient, the academic counselor will issue a Recommendation for a Special Examination (a single form for midterms or a triple color form for final examinations). Once you have this form, contact your instructor as soon as possible to make arrangements. Even if approved from your home faculty Academic Counsellor, there is no guarantee that you will be allowed to write the makeup test and exam.

For final examinations, you need permission from your home Faculty Counsellor, your instructor, and the Department Undergraduate Director. Failure to follow this procedure may result in an examination grade of zero. You must ensure that the Special Examination form has been signed by the instructor and Department Undergraduate Director and that the form is returned to the Academic Counseling Office for approval without delay. Make-up final examinations, if permitted, will be written within one month of the end of the exam period.

Policies Regarding Academic Accommodation

Information about the Faculty of Social Science’s policies regarding academic accommodation is found on its website at http://counselling.ssc.uwo.ca/procedures/havingproblems.asp or in Social Science Room 2105. Your “Academic Rights and Responsibilities” are also outlined in the current UWO Calendar at http://westerncalendar.uwo.ca/2014/pg111.html. Claiming that “you didn’t know what to do” is not an acceptable excuse for not following the stated procedures.

Policy Regarding Class Attendance

If your instructor views your class attendance as unsatisfactory, you can be prohibited from writing the final examination. If there is intent to make use of this University policy, you will be notified in writing.

Statement on Mental Health and Support Services

If you or someone you know is experiencing emotional/mental distress, there are several resources here at Western to assist you. Please visit http://www.uwo.ca/uwocom/mentalhealth/ for more information and a complete list of resources, as well as how to obtain help.
